

Eagle River Farmers' Market Code of Conduct

The primary purpose of this Code of Conduct is to ensure the wellbeing of all participants.

Vendors are expected to behave courteously to customers, other vendors, and market staff.

It is the market's intent is to serve the public and create a friendly atmosphere that will benefit both the vendors and customers.

As an Eagle River Farmers' Market vendor and/or their representative, I will:

- Respect and adhere to all rules established by the Eagle River Farmers' Market.
- Not willingly deceive or exploit customers or the Market concerning Market business.
- Always demonstrate the highest standards of personal behavior and integrity by conducting myself in a courteous, honest and respectful manner.
- Treat everyone with respect.
Yelling, swearing, name-calling and other rude, violent, aggressive, uncooperative or belligerent behavior toward others will not be tolerated.
- Under no circumstance, attend or participate in the Eagle River Farmers' Market while under the influence of alcohol and/or controlled substance.

It is important that all Eagle River Farmers' Market vendors and/or their representatives comply with the Code of Conduct. Failure to comply with any component of the code or participation in other inappropriate conduct as determined by the market executive committee may lead to dismissal as a vendor at the Eagle River Farmers' Market.

The Eagle River Farmers Market Committee seeks to enhance the quality of life in the Eagle River area by:

- Providing a quality market and entrepreneurial opportunities for a variety of locally grown and hand-made products and commodities sold directly to the consumer.
- Encouraging direct communication between growers/makers and consumers.
- Providing a community center within Eagle River that fosters social gathering, learning, interaction and entrepreneurship

