The Complicated Gift of Being a Clergy Spouse

“For the times they are a-changin’” are words from a Bob Dylan song from the 1960’s but they fit when it comes to the assumed expectation of what clergy spouses look like, act like and do. During this retreat, we will spend some time in a “life-coaching” format to look at those expectations, how they work, don’t work, what you would like to change and other areas of your lives that you would like some more control over and expertise in.

Who is your authentic self – not the label that others have placed on you? Who do you authentically want to be? What do you need to do in order to be that person? Let’s spend some time naming who that is and trying to identify the blocks that keep you from being your authentic self! May this retreat be that safe place of renewal, joy and laughter!

Barbara Solsaa, owner and director of Clergy Life Coaching, LLC will be joining us again this year as our program leader. There will also be time throughout the weekend to visit the alpacas at Rainbow’s End Alpacas in Norway, participate in a service project, go shopping and explore the Iron Mountain area, swim in the hotel pool, or enjoy time on your own. Each evening we will gather in the Hospitality Room for fellowship.

On Sunday morning, Bishop Katherine Finegan, NGLS Synod, will join us for “Breakfast with the Bishop” and preside at our morning worship service.

A detailed schedule of events will be provided to you when you arrive at the hotel.
