Re: Notice of 2020 Annual Congregational Meeting on Sunday 1/31/2021

Dear people of Zion,

At the annual congregational meeting we will be doing business as usual except for as noted below. This meeting, due to the current Covid-19 epidemic, will be a Zoom online meeting. Pastor Victor will send an email invite to those of you who have an email address registered with the church. People without computers can participate in this meeting by phone. Call the church office for the details and phone number. People who participate will be registered by the Zoom host. Households, please register all eligible voting members.

It is expected that annual reports, envelopes, and annual giving reports will be available no later than Friday 12/22/21 at the church. The annual report will be available also on the church's website (<https://www.zionsuperior.org/newsletters-announcements/>). The church's secretary will be available to open the church Monday-Friday, 9am to 1pm.

Items to be presented, with questions or discussion if needed, are listed below.

- Approval of 2019 minutes
- Various reports
- 2021 Budget
- Elections
- Special agenda item, Approval of amended Zion Constitution and Bylaws
- Special agenda item, Approval to transfer money from endowment to the 2021 budget. This money is to be used to pay Pastor's pension contributions which were not done per his letter of call for several years.
- Any other new business as might be brought to the meeting.

On behalf of the Church Council,
Grace and Peace

Bob Warner
Council President
